

Reggie Jackson and Dr. Fran Kaplan are the Co-Founders and Lead Trainers/Consultants of Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, equity, and inclusion within institutions and communities. They educate groups about the history, sociocultural dynamics, personal skills, and institutional practices that build a more equitable society.

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker and published writer for over a decade. Reggie specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present. Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more. Together, they have over 65 years of experience and 23 awards for their public service promoting racial equity and reconciliation, including the 2018 Friebert Social Justice Award from the Jewish Community Relations Council.
