

Nurturing Diversity Partners

Speaker Bios for Client Programs

Please use one of the following short bios for your promotional materials (flyers, event website, etc.) If you want to make any adjustments, please get approval from us on the modified version before using it.

For programs presented by Reggie Jackson alone:

35 words:

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker and published writer for over a decade. Reggie specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present.

60 words:

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker and published writer for over a decade. Reggie specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present. He is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities.

95 Words:

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker, researcher, and writer for over a decade. He specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present, helping institutions and individuals understand how our country's racial hierarchy developed historically and its impact on our lives today. Reggie is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities. He writes and provides background on current racial issues to regional, national, and international media.

110 Words:

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker, researcher, and writer for over a decade – regionally and nationally. His work helps institutions and individuals understand how our country's racial hierarchy developed historically, its impact on our lives today, and how we can realize America's promise for all citizens. To do this, Reggie shares seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present. Reggie is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities. He writes and provides background on current racial issues to regional, national, and international media.

For programs presented by Dr. Fran Kaplan alone:

40 words:

Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more.

65 words:

Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more. She is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities.

100 words:

Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more. She is multilingual and holds a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and a Master of Social Work degree. On her 70th birthday an extensive tribute to her work was read into the U.S. Congressional Record. Dr. Fran Kaplan is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities.

125 words:

Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She holds a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and a Master of Social Work degree. Her work as an adult educator, social worker and community organizer has taken her into various arenas, including farmworker rights, women's healthcare, child protection, parenting education, and public history. She has served as an executive, program, and training director. She is multilingual and an award-winning published author and filmmaker. On her 70th birthday an extensive tribute to her work was read into the U.S. Congressional Record. Dr. Fran Kaplan is a Co-Founder and Lead Trainer/Consultant for Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, inclusion, and equity within institutions and communities.

For programs presented by Reggie Jackson & Dr. Fran Kaplan together:

50 words:

Reggie Jackson and Dr. Fran Kaplan are the Co-Founders and Lead Trainers/Consultants of Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, equity, and inclusion within institutions and communities. They educate groups about the history, sociocultural dynamics, personal skills, and institutional practices that build a more equitable society.

75 words:

Reggie Jackson and Dr. Fran Kaplan are the Co-Founders and Lead Trainers/Consultants of Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, equity, and inclusion within institutions and communities. Reggie Jackson is a much sought-after speaker and published writer who specializes in sharing stories and facts about the experiences of peoples of color. Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working for social justice as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, published author, filmmaker, and more.

105 words:

Reggie Jackson and Dr. Fran Kaplan are the Co-Founders and Lead Trainers/Consultants of Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, equity, and inclusion within institutions and communities.

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker and published writer for over a decade. Reggie specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present. Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more.

160 words:

Reggie Jackson and Dr. Fran Kaplan are the Co-Founders and Lead Trainers/Consultants of Nurturing Diversity Partners, a consulting firm that fosters diversity, equity, and inclusion within institutions and communities. They educate groups about the history, sociocultural dynamics, personal skills, and institutional practices that build a more equitable society.

Reggie Jackson has been a much sought-after speaker and published writer for over a decade. Reggie specializes in sharing seldom-told stories and facts about the experiences of African-Americans and other peoples of color past and present. Dr. Fran Kaplan has spent fifty-five years working against poverty and for social justice and peace locally, nationally, and internationally. She has experience as an adult educator, social worker, community organizer, executive director, training director, published author, award-winning filmmaker, and more. Together, they have over 65 years of experience and 23 awards for their public service promoting racial equity and reconciliation, including the 2018 Friebert Social Justice Award from the Jewish Community Relations Council.

For programs presented by or with other presenters:

Let us know what length of bio(s) you need for promotional purposes, and we will prepare something for you.